

THE BUILDING PROCESS ALLIANCE
www.buildingprocessalliance.com

NEW ENGLAND SMALL HOUSES
Christopher Andrews Architect 1986-1989

The vehicle of the small freestanding house, a vital part of the American urban and rural fabric, engages architects in the challenge of providing high quality design within modest program and budget constraints. These three houses are for alternative family groupings in traditional New England contexts.